

RANDY ELLISON

Randy Ellison joined Little Rock National Airport in May 2007 as Manager of the Facilities department. In November 2009, Randy was named Director of Facilities.

As Director of Facilities, Randy is responsible for day-to-day management of maintenance operations for the airfield, fleet, and terminal facilities, and has oversight of the Airport's Electronics and IT functions.

Education:

B.S., Operations Management, John Brown University

Background:

Randy has 20 years in operations and support services management that includes maintenance, procurement, disaster recovery, construction, and communications management. Randy has held management positions with the Federal Reserve Bank and the private financial sector prior to joining Little Rock National Airport.

Associations:

Member of the American Association of Airport Executives