

SHANE CARTER

Shane Carter is Director of Public Affairs and Government Relations for Little Rock National Airport. Mr. Carter's experience spans nearly 20 years in broadcast and corporate communications and governmental relations.

Education:

MHA, Seton Hall University

Meteorology Certification, Mississippi State University

BS, Broadcast Journalism/Political Science, Arkansas State University

Background:

He leads public relations, marketing and media relations as well as governmental policy efforts to advance the airport's mission. In addition, Mr. Carter serves as spokesperson for Little Rock National Airport and the Little Rock Municipal Airport Commission. Prior to joining Little Rock National, Carter served as a Vice President of Arkansas Methodist Medical Center in Paragould, where he had responsibility for public relations, marketing, governmental affairs, foundation and retirement community development. He has also held positions as a television news producer, reporter, anchor and certified meteorologist.

Associations:

Member, American Association of Airport Executives

Member, Airports Council International